

[Grafton, June, 1883.]

WHITCOMB v. STRAW.

CASE for slander. Report of a referee for the plaintiff.

Barnard & Barnard, for the defendant.

F. D. Currier and J. M. Shirley, for the plaintiff.

DOE, C. J. There being evidence on which the plaintiff could prevail, he is entitled to

Judgment on the report.

BLODGETT, J., did not sit: the others concurred.

[Grafton, June, 1883.]

NATIONAL BANK OF NEWBURY v. PENACOOK SAVINGS BANK.

62b 703
67 317

ASSUMPSIT. Verdict for the plaintiffs.

Bingham, Mitchells & Batchellor, for the defendants.

Bingham, Aldrich & Remich, for the plaintiffs.

DOE, C. J. There was evidence on which the jury might find for the plaintiffs, and the motion for a nonsuit was rightly denied.

Judgment on the verdict.

BLODGETT and CARPENTER, JJ., did not sit; the others concurred.