Assented-to Motion to Extend Deadline for Responsive Pleading to State's Motion in Limine to Limit the Testimony of William Howerton

NOW COMES the defendant, Volodymyr Zhukovskyy, by and through counsel, Jay Duguay, Esq., and respectfully requests this Honorable Court extend the deadline for responsive pleading to the State's Motion in Limine to Limit the Testimony of William Howerton.

In support of this motion the Defendant states the following:

1. On May 27, 2022, the State filed a motion in limine to limit the testimony of William Howerton.
2. Due to pre-scheduled absences from the office, Counsel has not had an opportunity to confer and prepare a response.
3. The Defendant requests an extension of the responsive deadline from June 6, to June 10.
4. Coos County Attorney John McCormick Assents to this motion on behalf of the State.

Wherefore, the Defendant respectfully requests this Honorable Court extend the deadline for responsive pleadings to June 10.

Respectfully submitted,

Granted
