STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

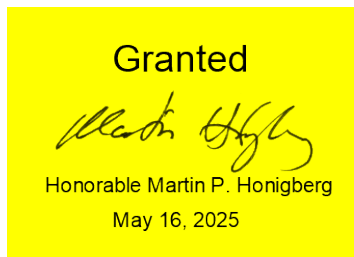

Superior Court

Merrimack, ss.

State of New Hampshire

v.

Anna Barbara Hantz Marconi

May Term, 2025

No. 217-2024-CR-1167

ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMITATIONS

The defense is filing five replies to State objections to defense motions today.¹

Because there are many arguments which apply to more than one, or all, of the motions and objections, the defense made those arguments once in one reply and then incorporated the arguments by reference in other replies, with the goal of the Court and others not having to read the same argument more than once. This process shortened the overall volume of the replies, but the net effect could be perceived as exceeding the 10-page per reply limit in the Court rules. Thus, to insure compliance with the Court's rules, the defense seeks an order that permitting the defense to exceed the page limit. The State, through Senior Assistant Attorney General Dan Jimenez, assents to this motion.

WHEREFORE, the defense respectfully requests that, to the extent it is necessary to ensure compliance with the Court's rules, the Court permit the defense to exceed the 10-page limit in the replies filed today, on May 15, 2025.

¹ The specific State's objections to which replies are being filed are the objections to the Motion to Dismiss the Charge of Criminal Attempted Improper Influence, the Motion to Dismiss the Charge of Criminal Solicitation of Improper Influence, the Motion to Dismiss the Charges of Official Oppression and Criminal Solicitation of Official Oppression, the Motion to Dismiss the Charge of Obstructing Government Administration, and the Motion to Dismiss Charges of Criminal Solicitation of Misuse of Position.

Dated this 15th day of May, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Richard Guerriero
