SUPERIOR COURT

v.

ALEXANDRA ECKERSLEY

STATE'S MOTION TO RECONSIDER

NOW COMES, the State of New Hampshire, by and through Shawn P. Sweeney, Esq., Assistant Hillsborough County Attorney, and hereby moves this Honorable Court to Reconsider its grant of the defendant's Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony, stating in support as follows:

1. The defendant filed a Motion to Exclude Expert Testimony on January 31, 2024. In part, the defendant argued that no formal expert disclosures or CV's had been provided to the defense.
2. The State had made multiple requests of several medical providers relevant to this matter. The first such request was made on January 18, 2024. The second request came on February 1, 2024. Despite the State's best efforts to obtain the providers' CV's, the State no received no initial responses to its requests.
3. Finally, on February 2, 2024, the State received CV's in response to its inquiries from two providers – Doctor Steven Ringer and Physician Assistant Katie Priest. These CV's were sent to defense counsel on February 5, 2024. They were downloaded by defense counsel on February 7, 2024.
4. The State still has not received at least two other requested CV's. The State made an additional request of those CV's and continues working to procure them from the requested providers.

At a hearing held on today's date, the State informed the Court that the CV's had been provided to the defense. The defense agreed. Given that the trial is not until July, and the defendant has sufficient time to depose any experts, the Court finds the defendant is not prejudiced by the delayed disclosure of the CVs. Therefore, the motion to reconsider is GRANTED. The prior order on the defendant's motion to preclude the experts is VACATED and that motion is now DENIED.

5. As a result, the State respectfully requests for this Honorable Court to allow for the acceptance of Doctors Ringer and Priest to testify as experts in this matter. In addition, the State asks that this Court allow it to continue its efforts to procure the remaining CV's it has requested and to allow for disclosure to the defense as is necessary.

WHEREFORE, the State respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

- A. Grant the State's Motion;
- B. Schedule a hearing thereon, if necessary; and
- C. Grant the State any such other relief as may be proper and just.

DATED: February 26, 2024

Respectfully Submitted,
