NOTICE OF DEFAULT

FILE COPY

Case Name: Crystal Sorey, as Administratrix of Harmony Montgomery, et al v State of New Hampshire, DHHS, DCYF
Case Number: 216-2024-CV-00722

Default has been entered against the following party in the above action:
State of New Hampshire, DHHS, DCYF

Default has been entered for the following reason(s):
Failure to file a timely appearance and answer.

Case is continued for entry of judgment upon compliance with Superior Court Rule 42. Final judgment may be obtained against a party in default by filing the following: An appropriate motion for entry of judgment; an affidavit in support of financial damages sought, if any; a proposed decree if relief other than financial damages is sought; the original of any negotiable instrument or similar evidence of indebtedness on which this action is based, if applicable; and an affidavit as to military service, if applicable. Any claim for attorneys' fees must be made by motion with an accompanying attorney affidavit. Costs will be taxed only upon the submission of a verified taxation of costs.

Before final judgment will be entered, the party seeking judgment must certify that it has mailed to the last known address of the defaulting party copies of the above documents and that it has notified the defaulting party that the entry of final judgment or decree is being sought.

A hearing as to final judgment shall be scheduled upon the request of any party. Otherwise, the Court may enter final judgment based on the pleadings submitted or may schedule a hearing at its discretion.
