STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

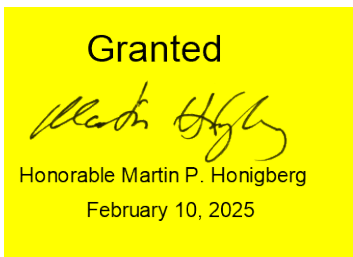

Superior Court

Merrimack, ss.

State of New Hampshire

v.

Anna Barbara Hantz Marconi

February Term, 2025

No. 217-2024-CR-1167

ASSENTED-TO MOTION FOR
STATUS CONFERENCE TO INCLUDE COUNSEL ONLY

The defense requests, with the assent of the State, that the Court order the Status Conference currently scheduled on February 13, 2025, may be attended by counsel alone without the accused, and that the Court excuse Justice Hantz Marconi from attending, for the reasons set forth below.

1. Justice Anna Barbara Hantz Marconi is charged with Attempt to Commit Improper Influence, Criminal Solicitation (Improper Influence), Official Oppression, Criminal Solicitation (Official Oppression), Obstructing Government Administration, and two counts of Criminal Solicitation (Misuse of Position).

2. The Court previously scheduled a dispositional conference for February 13th but that was changed to a status conference at the request of all parties.

3. The status conference is a non-evidentiary hearing which will primarily address scheduling and discovery issues. The parties do not anticipate arguing any legal issues. Thus, Justice Hantz Marconi's presence is not necessary, and she requests that she be excused from the hearing.

4. Senior Assistant Attorney General Dan Jimenez assents to this request on behalf of the State.

WHEREFORE, the defense, with the assent of the State, respectfully asks the Court to order the Status Conference currently scheduled on February 13, 2025, may be attended by counsel alone without the accused, and that the Court excuse Justice Hantz Marconi from attending.

Dated this 10th day of February, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,
