Hi Kymme and April—

We are on for a Status Hearing on Restoration on Monday in this case, but we have not received the report from the OFE. We are in agreement to reschedule in October to allow time for us to receive and review the report. Attorney Nappen is available after the 6th of October.

Let me know if you need a Motion.

Thanks,

Katie

I. PENALTY FOR OFFENSE COMMITTED WHILE ON RELEASE

A person convicted of an offense while released pursuant to this chapter shall be sentenced, in addition to the sentence prescribed for the offense, to:

- A. A term of imprisonment of not more than 7 years if the offense is a felony; or
- B. A maximum term of imprisonment of not more than 1 year if the offense is a misdemeanor.

A term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to this section shall be consecutive to any other sentence of imprisonment. Neither the penalty provided by this section nor any prosecution under this section shall interfere with or prevent the forfeiture of any bail or the exercise by the Court of its power to punish for contempt, but this section shall be construed to provide an additional penalty for failure to appear.

II. DETENTION AND SANCTIONS FOR DEFAULT OR BREACH OF CONDITIONS

A. A peace officer may detain an accused until he can be brought before a justice if he has a warrant issued by a justice for default of recognizance or for breach of conditions of release or if he witnesses a breach of conditions of release. The accused shall be brought before a justice for a bail revocation hearing within 48 hours, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays excepted.

B. A person who has been released pursuant to the provisions of RSA 597:2 and who has violated a condition of this release is subject to a revocation of release, an order of detention, and a prosecution for contempt of Court under the provisions of RSA 597:7-a.

C. The State may initiate a proceeding for revocation of an order of release by filing a motion with the Court which ordered the release. The Court may issue a warrant for the arrest of a person charged with violating a condition of release, and the person shall be brought before the Court for a proceeding in accordance with the section.

III. RSA 641:5 TAMPERING WITH WITNESSES AND INFORMANTS. A person is guilty of a CLASS B FELONY if:

A. Believing that an official proceeding, as defined in RSA 641:1, II or investigation is pending or about to be instituted, the person attempts to induce or otherwise cause another person to:

1. Testify or inform falsely; or
2. Withhold any testimony, information, document or thing; or
3. Elude legal process summoning him to provide evidence; or
4. Absent himself from the proceeding or investigation to which he has been summoned; or

B. The person commits any unlawful act in retaliation for anything done by another person in the capacity as witness or informant; or

C. The person solicits, accepts, or agrees to accept, any benefit in consideration of his or her doing any of the things specified in Paragraph A.

NOTICE OF INTERSTATE ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE WITH THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA)

1. This criminal protective order meets all full faith and credit requirements of the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. sec. 2265 (1994). This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the defendant has been afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and enforceable throughout New Hampshire and all other states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands and all U.S. Territories, and shall be enforced as if it were an order of any such jurisdiction.
2. Violations of this order are subject to state and federal criminal penalties. If the restrained party (the defendant) travels across state or tribal boundaries, or causes the protected party to travel across state or tribal boundaries, with the intent to violate the protective orders and then violates a protective provision of this order, the defendant may be prosecuted for a federal felony offense under the Violence Against Women Act, 18 U.S.C. sec. 2262(a)(1) or (2) (1994).
3. It shall be unlawful for any person subject to a qualifying protection order to possess any firearm or ammunition in or affecting commerce; or to ship, transport or receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce. A qualifying court order is an order that was issued after a hearing of which the defendant received actual notice, and at which the defendant had an opportunity to participate; and includes a finding that such person represents a credible threat to the physical safety of an intimate partner or child of such person or intimate partner or which restrains the person from harassing, stalking, or threatening an intimate partner or child of such intimate partner or person, or engaging in other conduct that would place an intimate partner in reasonable fear of bodily injury to the partner or child; or by its terms explicitly prohibits the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against such intimate partner or child that would reasonably be expected to cause bodily injury. 18 U.S.C. section 922 (g) (8).
4. It shall be unlawful for any person convicted in any court of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport in interstate commerce, or possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition; or to receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce. 18 U.S.C. section 922 (g) (9).
5. If you have any questions whether these laws make it illegal for you to possess or purchase a firearm, you should consult an attorney.
