DOCKET NO.: 226-2019-CR-814

STATE

v.

DALE E. HOLLOWAY JR.,
Defendant

EXPEDITED EX PARTE MOTION TO EXCEED MAXIMUM COMPENSATION

NOW COMES the defendant, Dale E. Holloway Jr., by and through his attorney, John G. MacLachlan of John G. MacLachlan & Associates, LLC, and hereby requests this Honorable Court authorize undersigned counsel to exceed the $20,000.00 maximum compensation for this case.

1. Mr. Holloway is charged with four felonies – 1st degree attempted murder, 1st degree assault w/deadly weapon, felon in possession of a deadly weapon, and 2nd degree assault w/deadly weapon and bodily injury. He is also accused of one misdemeanor – one count of simple assault. Counsel accepted assignment of Mr. Holloway's case on February 15, 2022.
2. Counsel moves the Court to grant leave to exceed the $20,000.00 maximum compensation in this case. The amount of time necessary to provide adequate representation will exceed the limit set forth in N.H. Supreme Court Admin. Rule 47(2)(d) of $20,000.00. This rule allows this court to authorize compensation in excess of the maximum fee limit where there is a finding of good cause and exceptional circumstances. Counsel submits that those circumstances exist in this case.
3. Undersigned counsel, along with co-counsel, are the fifth attorney or set of attorneys assigned to represent Mr. Holloway. While the case is three years old, undersigned counsel has only been afforded six months to prepare for trial or about nine months after assignment.

4. Counsel has not been able to recover much work product from previous counsel.

Counsel must more or less start over.

5. Further, counsel has attempted to visit Mr. Holloway at the New Hampshire State Prison for Men to develop a relationship with Mr. Holloway and expects to attempt and make many more leading up to trial. The amount of time spent at the prison with Mr. Holloway in the coming months will be greater than is usually required. First, to no fault of undersigned counsel or Mr. Holloway, undersigned counsel must somehow develop a trusting relationship due to the nature and severity of the charges against Mr. Holloway. This is particularly important considering Mr. Holloway's relationships with previous counsel.

6. There are also mental health concerns relating to Mr. Holloway that needs to be explored.

7. The amount of discovery in this matter is excessive and needs to be fully explored and investigated in order to ensure the rights of Mr. Holloway.

8. Counsel and co-counsel have filed several motions for services other than counsel.

Counsel will need to interface with and direct these experts.

9. To date, counsel has logged 31.7 hours. In total, current fees and expenses are approximately $3,170.00. Although that leaves approximately 168 hours in possible fees, for several reasons that will not be enough. It is likely that counsel will expand, at a minimum, an additional 50 to 60 hours more of discovery review based on experience. Second, there will be several or more trips to the New Hampshire State Prison to build a relationship with the client. These trips and meetings will likely be 40 hours or more. Third, this case is extremely unlikely to resolve short of a trial. Trial preparation, jury selection and trial will be at least another 100 hours. Fourth, there are likely 10-12 hours of motion hearings for motions in limine, several pretrial motions that will be adopted by the defense. Based on experience there is at least another 20 hours of miscellaneous work including interfacing with experts, collaboration between co-counsel, legal research, and etc.

10. Even though a small percentage of available funds have been used so far, Counsel makes this request in good faith now because it will be required. Also, counsel would like to focus on the case and not worry about getting close to or exceeding the cap.
11. Attorney Sarah Blodgett, Executive Director of the NH Judicial Council, supports this Motion and endorses its granting.
12. This Motion is filed ex parte with a request to seal. The State has no standing in matters pertaining to Counsel's compensation and billing. Further, the public should not have access to this pleading as it reveals, to a degree, the work counsel has performed on behalf of Mr. Holloway.

WHEREFORE, for the above-stated reasons, Dale E. Holloway Jr., by and through counsel, hereby requests this Court issue an order:

- a) Granting approval to exceed maximum compensation; AND
- b) Granting any further relief deemed just and proper consistent with the prayer for relief.

Dated: May 13, 2022

Respectfully submitted,

Dale E. Holloway Jr.
By his Attorney,

/s/ John MacLachlan
