18. Penalties to be proportioned to offenses; true design of punishment.
19. Searches and seizures regulated.
20. Trial by jury in civil causes; exceptions.

*The side notes indicate the decisions of the supreme court.

All amendments are shown by notes at the bottom of the page indicating the year in which they took effect. The amendments of 1792, "so far as relates to the choice of the members of the legislature and the executive officers of the state, county treasurer and recorder of deeds," took effect on February 1, 1793, and all others on the first Wednesday of June, 1793.

The amendments of 1850 took effect September 16, 1852; those of 1876, August 1, 1877, October 1, 1878, and the first Wednesday of June, 1879, as indicated in the foot notes; those of 1889, April 2, 1889; those of 1902 on March 26, 1903; and those of 1912 on November 20, 1912.

The numbering of the sections of Part II first appeared in the Revised Statutes of 1842. In 1889, when the tenth section of Part II was stricken out, all subsequent sections were renumbered, with the result of making much confusion in citations. In this copy the original number has been placed in parenthesis at the side of the revised number.

PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE 1st. All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

[ART.] *2^d. All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights—among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

[ART.] 3^d. When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

[ART.] 4th. Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

[ART.] 5th. Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshiping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion: provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

[ART.] 6th. As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote those important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

[ART.] 7th. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

State sovereignty lxvi, 369.

[ART.] 8th. All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

Accountability of magistrates and officers, lxvi, 369. lxvii, 49.

[ART.] 9th. No office or place whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

No hereditary office or place.

[ART.] 10th. Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought, to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

Right of revolution. liii, 592. lxxv, 113.

[ART.] 11th. All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office; [but no person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and to write; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age or upwards on the first day of January, A. D. 1904;]* [and provided further that no person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall have been convicted of treason, bribery, or any wilful violation of the election laws

[ART.] 12th. Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

593. lxxv, 262. lxxvi, 591, 611. lxxvii, 65. lxxviii, 388.

[ART.] 13th. No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.

[ART.] 14th. Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

[ART.] 15th. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

[ART.] 16th. No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

[ART.] 17th. In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed;—except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the [legislature]* shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

[ART.] 18th. All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do† the lightest [offenses]:‡ For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

[ART.] 19th. [Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial, in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued, but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.]*

[ART.] 20th. In all controversies concerning property—and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practiced, [and except in cases in which the value in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, and title of real estate is not concerned]† the parties have a right to a trial by jury and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relates to mariners' wages the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

[ART.] 21st. In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to [be]‡ fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

Militia.

[ART.] 25th. Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up, without the consent of the legislature.

Standing armies.

[ART.] 26th. In all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power.

Military, subject to civil power.

[ART.] 27th. No soldier in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

Quartering of soldiers.

[ART.] 28th. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body.

Taxes to be levied only by the people or legislature. xiv, 98. lxxiv, 528, 535. 539. lxxvi, 611.

[ART.] 29th. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

Suspension of laws by the legislature only.

[ART.] 31st. [The legislature shall assemble for the redress of public grievances and for making such laws as the public good may require.]*

[ART.] 32^d. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

[ART.] 33^d. No magistrate, or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

[ART.] 34th. No person can, in any case, be subjected to law martial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

[ART.] 35th. [It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices so long as they behave well; subject, however, to such limitations, on account of age, as may be provided by the constitution of the state; and that they should have honorable salaries, ascertained and established by standing laws.]†

[ART.] 36th. Economy being a most essential virtue in all states, especially in a young one; no pension shall be granted, but in consideration of actual services; and such pensions ought to be granted with great caution, by the legislature, and never for more than one year at a time.

EXECUTIVE

[ART.] 37th. In the government of this state, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the legislative, executive, and judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of, each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

The legislative, executive and judicial departments to be kept separate.

votes for senators; and the secretary shall lay the same before the senate and house of representatives, on the first Wednesday of [January]* to be by them examined, and in case of an election by a [plurality]† of votes through the state, the choice shall be by them declared and published. And the qualifications of electors of the governor shall be the same as those for senators; and if no person shall have a [plurality]† of votes, the senate and house of representatives shall, by joint ballot elect one of the two persons having the highest number of votes, who shall be declared governor. And no person shall be eligible to this office, unless, at the time of his election, he shall have been an inhabitant of this state for seven years next preceding, and unless he shall be of the age of thirty years.‡

[ART. 42 (43).] In cases of disagreement between the two houses, with regard to the time or place of adjournment or prorogation, the governor, with advice of council, shall have a right to adjourn or prorogue the general court, not exceeding ninety days at any one time, as he may determine the public good may require, and he shall dissolve the same seven days before the said first Wednesday of [January].* And, in case of any infectious distemper prevailing in the place where the said court at any time is to convene, or any other cause, whereby dangers may arise to the health or lives of the members from their attendance, the governor may direct the session to be holden at some other the most convenient place within the state.

[ART. 43 (44).] Every bill which shall have passed both houses of the general court, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the governor, if he the inhabitants of this state, or oblige them to march out of the limits of the same, without their free and voluntary consent, or the consent of the general court, nor grant commissions for exercising the law martial in any case, without the advice and consent of the council.

Pardoning power.

[ART. 51 (52).] The power of pardoning offenses, except such as persons may be convicted of before the senate, by impeachment of the house, shall be in the governor, by and with the advice of council: But no charter of pardon, granted by the governor, with advice of council, before conviction, shall avail the party pleading the same, notwithstanding any general or particular expressions contained therein, descriptive of the offense or offenses intended to be pardoned.

Militia officers, removal of.
lxxix, 535.

[ART. 52 (53).] No officer duly commissioned to command in the militia shall be removed from his office, but by the address of both houses to the governor, or by fair trial in courtmartial, pursuant to the laws of the state for the time being.

Staff and non-commissioned officers, by whom appointed.

[ART. 53 (54).] The commanding officers of the regiments shall appoint their adjutants and quartermasters; the brigadiers, their brigade-majors; the major-generals, their aids; the captains and subalterns, their non-commissioned officers.

Division of militia
into brigades, regiments, and com-

Population of New Hampshire

NUMBER AND DISTRIBUTION OF INHABITANTS

Population of the State.—New Hampshire was one of the original thirteen States. Its population on April 1, 1930, according to the Fifteenth Census, was 465,293, which represents an increase of 22,210, or 5.0 per cent, as compared with the population on January 1, 1920. The total land area of the State, as shown in Table 3, is 9,031 square miles.* The average number of inhabitants per square mile in 1930 was 51.5, as compared with 49.1 in 1920.

Table 1 shows the population of New Hampshire from 1790, the year of the first Federal census, to 1930, together with the increase in each decade.

Counties, cities, and minor civil divisions.—In the tables which follow (Tables 2 to 6) the population of New Hampshire is shown by counties, cities, and other minor civil divisions, with some comparative figures from previous censuses.

Cities of 10,000 or more.—There are nine cities in the state which had a population of 10,000 or more in 1930. Table 2 shows for these cities the population at each census for which figures are available, together with the increase during each decade. The figures shown for the earlier censuses represent, in many cases, the population of the town prior to its incorporation as a city. Manchester, the largest city, first attained a population of 10,000 between 1840 and 1850. Rochester is the only city added to this group following the census of 1920.

Minor civil divisions.—Table 4 shows the population of each county by towns, cities, and other minor civil divisions. The more thickly settled counties are divided into towns and cities, but in Carroll County there are 2 "locations" and in Coos County there are 8 "grants," 6 "purchases," 6 "townships," and 3 "locations." Of the civil divisions known as "grants" and "purchases," 7 have had no population returned at any of the last three censuses and so are omitted from the list of minor civil divisions in Table 4.

*Coos.—The absence of population in any year indicates that none was returned at that census. Seven civil divisions of this county for which no population has been returned at any of the three censuses are not included in the table; these divisions are as follows: Bean's grant, Chandler's purchase, Crawford's purchase, Cutts' grant, Hadley's purchase, Low and Burbank's grant, and Sargent's purchase. Figures for Pittsburg town in 1920 include population reported for Colebrook Academy grant (15), Hubbard township (358), and Webster township (51).

STATE EMBLEMS

Sections 1 and 4 of Chapter 8 of the Public Laws of New Hampshire were amended by Chapter 133 of the Laws of 1931, so that said Chapter 8 now reads as follows:

STATE EMBLEMS

1. Flag. The state flag shall be of the following color and design: The body or field shall be blue and shall bear upon its center in suitable proportion and colors a representation of the state seal; the seal shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel leaves with nine stars interspersed. When used for military purposes the flag shall conform to the regulations of the United States.

2. When Displayed. It shall be displayed above the state house whenever the legislature is in session and during meetings of the governor and council when expedient, and upon such other occasions as the governor may designate.

3. Flower. The purple lilac, Syringa vulgaris, is the state flower of New Hampshire.

4. Seal. The seal of the state shall be two inches in diameter, circular, with the following detail and no other: A field crossed by a straight horizon line of the sea, above the center of the field; concentric with the field the rising sun, exposed above the horizon about one third of its diameter, the field encompassed with laurel; across the field for the full width within the laurel a broad-side view of the frigate Raleigh, on the stocks; the ship's bow dexter and higher than the stern; the three lower masts shown in place, together with the fore, main and mizzen tops, shrouds and mainstays; an ensign staff at the stern flies the United States flag authorized by act of Congress June 14, 1777; a jury staff on the mainmast and another on the foremast each flies a pennant; flags and pennants are streaming to the dexter side; the hull is shown without a rudder; below the ship the field is divided into land and water by a double diagonal line whose highest point is sinister; no detail is shown anywhere on the water, nor any on the land between the water and the stocks except a granite boulder on the dexter side; encircling the field is the inscription, SEAL . OF . THE . STATE . OF . NEW HAMPSHIRE, the words separated by round periods, except between the parts of New Hampshire; at the lowest point of the inscription is the date 1776, flanked on either side by a five-pointed star, which group separates the beginning and end of the inscription; the whole form and design to be as follows:

OFFENSES AGAINST THE NATIONAL AND STATE FLAGS

(Chapter 381, Public Laws.)

1. Marking Flags, etc. No person shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place or cause to be placed any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, character marks or notice whatever upon the national flag, or upon any flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States, or upon the flag of this state, or upon any state flag or ensign of any other state, or upon any flag or ensign evidently purporting to be either of said flags, standards, colors or ensigns.

2. Affixing to Flags, etc. No person shall in any manner append, annex or affix, or cause the same to be done, to any such flag, standard, color or ensign, any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, marks or notice whatever, or exhibit or display, or cause to be exhibited or displayed, any such flag, standard, color or ensign or any flag or ensign evidently purporting to be either of the same, upon which shall in any manner be placed, attached, annexed or affixed any inscription, design, device, symbol, name, advertisement, words, marks or notice whatever.

3. Using as Advertisement. No person shall expose, or cause to be exposed, to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away or have in possession for sale or to give away or for use for any purpose, any article or substance, being an article of merchandise or a receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which shall have been printed, painted, attached or otherwise placed a representation of any such flag, standard, color or ensign, to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance.

4. Mutilation, etc. No person shall publicly mutilate, trample upon, defile, deface or cast contempt upon, either by words or acts, any of said flags, standards, colors or ensigns, whether the same are public or private property.

5. Penalty. Whoever violates any of the foregoing provisions shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

6. Exceptions. Flags, standards, colors or ensigns, the property of, or used in the service of, the United States or of this state, may have inscriptions, names, actions, words, marks or symbols placed thereon, pursuant to law or authorized regulations.

Display of Foreign Flags

7. Regulation. It shall not be lawful to display the flag of any foreign country upon any state, county or municipal buildings; provided, that whenever any foreigners shall become the guests of the United States, the state or any city, upon public proclamation by the governor or the mayor of such city, the flag of the country of which such public guest shall be a citizen may be displayed upon such public buildings.

8. Penalty. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section he shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS

NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

Four sets of Presidential electors appeared on the New Hampshire ballots used in the general election of November, 1936. The Republican and Democratic electors were nominated at State Conventions held, respectively, September 30, and October 1, at Concord, and the electors of Communist and Union parties were named in petitions filed with the secretary of state.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

A National Convention of Delegates representing the Republican Party of the United States convened at Cleveland, Ohio, June 9, 1936. This convention nominated Alfred M. Landon of Independence, Kansas, as candidate for President, and Frank Knox of Chicago, Illinois, for Vice President. At the Republican State Convention, the Landon and Knox electors nominated were Huntley N. Spaulding, Rochester, Joseph H. Laflamme, Manchester, Lois Lyman Patten, Concord, and Esther C. Burt of Lincoln.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Democratic National Convention was held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, from June 23 to June 27, 1936. Both President Franklin D. Roosevelt of Hyde Park, New York, and Vice President John N. Garner of Uvalde, Texas, were nominated to succeed themselves in the offices they were holding. The Roosevelt and Garner electors nominated at the Democratic State Convention were Alice C. Skinner, Hanover, John L. Sullivan, Manchester, Robert Marvin, Portsmouth, and Henri T. Ledoux of Nashua.

COMMUNIST PARTY

One of the minor parties which succeeded in getting the names of electors placed on the New Hampshire ballot was the Communist party under the leadership of Earl Browder of Kansas, and James W. Ford of Alabama. The electors for whom Nomination Papers were filed with the secretary of state were Julius Anderson, Concord, Elba K. Chase, Washington, Alonzo Morse, Charlestown, and Waino Wirkkala of Lempster.

UNION PARTY

The newly organized Union Party had as its Presidential candidate William Lemke of Fargo, North Dakota, and Thomas C. O'Brien of Massachusetts, as candidate for Vice President. Nomination Papers were duly filed for the following electors: Raymond J. Trembley, Keene, Alfred E. Hutchinson, Manchester, Hattie F. Rowland, Dover, and Ralph W. Hill of Nashua.

DIRECT PRIMARY

September 15, 1936

DIRECT PRIMARY, 1936

Persons voted for at a primary, who receive a plurality of all the votes cast by a party, shall be candidates of that party for the office designated in the ballot.—P. L. 25:45.

The direct primary election was held September 15, 1936, with candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties participating.

In the summary immediately following are the full names and residences of the candidates also their total votes. Then follow tables carrying the vote in detail and giving only the last names of the candidates.

The first tables give by counties the votes for governor and United States senator. The next tables give by districts the votes for representatives in Congress, the votes for councilors, and the votes for state senators. Then follow the tables showing the votes for county officers.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the primary election twenty-two recounts of ballots were conducted by the secretary of state, six of these being in Republican contests and sixteen in Democratic contests. By only two of these recounts were the nominations of candidates affected. The two changes are explained as follows:

In Manchester, Ward 8, entitled to eight representatives, John E. Walsh and Martin E. Holleran, Democrats, were returned as having 466 votes each, making a tie for the eighth position. At the recount Mr. Holleran lost eleven votes giving him ninth place, while Mr. Walsh gained twenty-five votes which raised him above George N. Constant and placed him seventh in the list, Mr. Constant taking the eighth place.

In Allenstown, the third Democratic supervisor Rene Vezina, as returned with 143 votes, at the recount lost four votes while Ernest Gilbert returned with only 136 votes, gained twenty-eight votes and he became the nominee of his party in place of Mr. Vezina.

Other changes which may be noted in the tabulation of figures did not affect the nomination of candidates whose names appear with the figures of the return after the primary, followed by the figures of the "recount." The asterisk indicates the nominee of the party.

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION, 1936

The Republican state convention met at Concord, Wednesday, September 30, 1936, with Charles M. Dale of Portsmouth, president, and adopted the following platform:

PLATFORM OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

The Republican party in New Hampshire looks forward confidently to victory in the coming election. We take pride in the free and uncontrolled Republican National convention at Cleveland, in the spirit that animated it and in the results achieved, to which we pledge the whole-hearted support of the Republicans of New Hampshire. We endorse its action in giving to the party the vigorous, forward-looking leadership of Alfred M. Landon and Frank Knox. We subscribe fully to the platform there adopted and commend it to the careful attention of the voters.

National Issues

We look upon the American Constitution as the safeguard of the people's liberty, and we demand that such modifications of it as changed conditions may require be made by the method therein provided and not by legislative evasion or executive fiat. The spirit of individual self-reliance which inspired and is protected by that Constitution must be preserved. We appeal to the common sense of the electorate and to the spirit of independence which distinguishes the true American from citizens of other countries. We pledge that the American system shall not be abandoned in the United States.

We condemn the present administration at Washington for taking advantage of the recent world depression and the consequent suffering of our fellow citizens to introduce changes in our form of government; for unnecessary interference in local affairs, for unprecedented waste of the people's money, and for the improper use of relief funds for political purposes. We believe that the methods adopted have hindered rather than helped recovery and imposed a heavy burden on future generations, and that the cure for our economic difficulties lies in such policies as shall provide for permanent re-employment.

We are convinced that the present federal administration has lost the confidence of the people of the country regardless of party; and we call upon all patriotic citizens to help in replacing it by one which shall command such confidence, as the first essential step toward national recovery.

State Issues

The most pressing problems which confront the State of New Hampshire are fiscal in their character. The interrelated questions of relief, re-employment and recovery must still be faced, and they should be dealt with constructively and on a sound fiscal basis so that recovery may be permanent.

Relief

The federal, state and local governments should continue to participate in the conduct of a general program of public relief. Any federal contributions should take the form of direct grants. The state should maintain a system of direct relief, and work relief for purposes of permanent value to the state, create standards for its administration and supervise its conduct so as to protect the taxpayer against the waste of public funds. The relief officials of counties, cities and towns should have the actual administration of the relief program, so far as consistent with any regulations of the federal government in making grants to such programs.

Finance

We are proud that, despite the unusual demands upon the state treasury in the trying period of the depression, provision has been made to retire all state indebtedness, including that incurred by reason of relief demands, without major tax enactments, and that otherwise the state has been maintained upon a pay-as-you-go basis. We pledge the party to the policy of meeting current expenses out of current revenues.

Taxation

The burden of taxation on home and farm owners of our state has reached its limit. If additional revenue is needed, it must be obtained by broadening the tax base rather than by placing a further burden on this class of property.

Economic Development

With a view to the reduction of relief expenditures through re-employment, the state government should assume as a major interest the promotion and encouragement of its manufacturing, agricultural, recreational and other industries, upon which the welfare and prosperity of its people so largely depend. We also approve of a reasonable legislative program for soil conservation in co-operation with the federal government.

Dairy Industry

The dairy industry is the most important branch of agriculture in New Hampshire and the stabilization of its markets is vital to the welfare of both producers and consumers. The Milk Control board is an effective means to accomplish this end and we recommend its continuance, together with some form of interstate compact or the support of an efficient federal milk marketing program, to stabilize the milk market in New England.

Highways

It is essential that the present system of state highways be maintained for all-season travel. The extension of that system and the construction of new roads should be kept within the limits of current income available for highway purposes. The existing policy of aiding towns in the maintenance of Class V roads should be continued.

Federal Gasoline Tax

We call upon the federal government to withdraw from the field of state taxation by repealing the present federal road toll tax of one cent a gallon of gasoline.

State Police

We favor the strengthening and co-ordination of the state's agencies for the protection of life and property, especially in the rural and recreational sections.

Labor

The Republican party in New Hampshire has to its credit a long record of legislation for the benefit of labor. Through its efforts, this state was among the first to adopt the principle of workmen's compensation. A factory inspection law was placed on the statute books. A minimum wage law was enacted, and is now in operation. The attempt has been made, through the medium of interstate compacts, to set up minimum standards of working conditions. In continuance of our liberal policy in this field, recognizing the tendency toward shorter working hours, we pledge ourselves to the enactment of a forty-eight hour law for women and minors in industry.

Merit System

We endorse the principle of the merit system in public employment, and believe it should be made more effective in this state by legislation in relation to new appointments and to the protection and promotion of faithful and competent public servants.

Social Security

Looking to the welfare of labor, and social security, we promised a program of unemployment compensation and old age assistance.

Legislation was enacted under Republican administrations in time to become operative when the federal law went into effect. We propose to maintain New Hampshire in a position of leadership in this field.

Education

New Hampshire is one of the few states which has not lowered its standards of education during the depression. We are particularly proud of that record and pledge ourselves to maintain those standards, believing that even though economies may be necessary in other matters we ought not to economize at the expense of our children.

Children's Courts

We recommend the establishment of juvenile and domestic relations courts and an adequate system of probation applying to both children and adults.

Flood Control

In order to protect life and property from floods the state should co-operate in every possible way with the federal government and neighboring states in measures of flood prevention. In connection with any such program, due consideration should be given to local interests involved.

New Hampshire was one of the few states to entrust its affairs to the Republican party at the last election. Our record of fulfillment of platform promises made in 1934 constitutes the best guarantee of our purpose and ability to put the present program into effect. In view of the efficient execution of the state's business under the present Republican administration, and in view of the critical national situation, we invite the men and women of New Hampshire, irrespective of their political affiliations, in this crucial year in the nation's history, to support the principles and the candidates of the Republican party.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION, 1936

The Democratic state convention met at Concord, October 1, 1936, and organized by the election of Alvin A. Lucier of Nashua, as president, and adopted the following platform:

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM

In the Nation

1. Endorsement. Proud in the achievement of the National Administration and the progress of national recovery under the direction of our great leader, who taking office in the midst of catastrophe, has by his courageous acts and farsighted vision led the country from deepest depression to the high road of recovery, we unhesitatingly and completely pledge our support to the humanitarian ideals for the advancement and betterment of the people of this nation sponsored and enacted into law under the inspired leadership of our gallant President, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. We most heartily do endorse the Democratic National Platform.

2. Labor. In the state as well as in the nation the Democratic party has always stood and now stands for a full and fair return to the worker for the service rendered by him and for a short workday in order that he may have time to more and more share in the joys, recreations and benefits of a more abundant life. With these principles in mind we have consistently increased the workers' pay and shortened his hours, have written into the laws of this free country his right to collective bargaining and self organization free from the interference of employers contrary to the announced policy of the Republican party. The worker is the backbone of the country and we shall continue to support his rights and protect his freedom and prosperity.

3. Rural Electrification. We commend the policy of the administration in the field of rural electrification.

4. Housing and Farms. We are proud of the achievements of the National Administration in the field of saving homes and farms of millions of workers and farmers from foreclosure caused by economic conditions over which they have had no control, and are proud of the encouragement given by the National Administration for the building of new homes by private enterprise.

5. Business. Under the wise and beneficent treatment of business by the Democratic National Administration, many banks have been saved and their deposits (now insured) have increased. We commend the banking policies of the present National Administration.

In the State

6. Agriculture. a. The Dairy Industry. We refer to the declaration in our platform of 1934 for the establishment of a State Control Board and point out that following this declaration the Democratic party initiated a bill for such a board and successfully passed it to enactment, thus giving to the dairy industry, including producers, distributors and consumers, proper protection, which has resulted in the development of a co-ordinated program with similar existing agencies in the other New England states. We shall continue to give our support to this board and constantly endeavor to promote the development of the dairy industry in New Hampshire. We also favor such national legislation as may be necessary to make possible an efficient federal and state co-ordinated milk marketing plan to stabilize both the interstate and intrastate milk markets of New England.

b. Conservation of Agricultural Resources. We pledge ourselves to the enactment of legislation to secure for our farmers such federal aid as is available, or may be made available, to conserve the fertility of our farms, maintain our farm wood lots, protect our soil from erosion, and otherwise conserve agricultural resources. We recommend that this legislation be merely an enabling act that will permit the setting up of the necessary non-political organization within the state to provide for adequate co-operation with federal facilities.

c. Rural Roads. We believe that, since the rural residents help to pay the gasoline tax and since nearly all our main highways now are adequate, that a portion of the revenue from the road toll on gasoline should be allocated to towns for expenditure on Class V highways. This would serve a two-fold purpose: (1) It would improve the rural highways of the state so that farmers could get their produce to market at all times of the year, and (2) it would help to keep property tax rates from rising disproportionately in towns where the mileage of town roads is great, but where valuations are comparatively low.

d. Bovine Disease Eradication. The interest that the dairy-men of the state have shown in applying for Bang's Disease tests shows that they are ready and anxious to eradicate this disease, just as they eliminated bovine tuberculosis. We believe that money should be appropriated by the state to match federal funds for indemnities to farmers for Bang's Disease reactors, so that our dairy-men will not have to carry an unreasonable share of the cost of this project which is in the public interest.

7. Tax Reform. We pledge ourselves to readjust New Hampshire's tax system so that the tax burden may be distributed more equitably over our entire population, and especially so that real property may be relieved of a tax load that is too burdensome.

8. Education. The Democratic party points with just pride to the support it has always given to the educational institutions of this state. It notes with special pride the efficient service which the University and both normal schools have rendered to the entire state. The Democratic party pledges its continued support to education.

9. Economy. We believe in the utmost economy possible without the impairment of the vital functions of our state government and without denial of adequate relief to the worthy needy.

10. Liquor. We commend the stand of the Democratic party for the repeal of unworkable prohibition laws, point to our endorsement of the principle of state stores and the splendid manner in which they have, under a law urged by the Democratic party, handled the difficult problems of the liquor traffic in this state. We urge the continued enforcement of sane and sensible regulations of the sale of both liquor and beer, and pledge our support to enforcement of the law governing the sale of both.

11. State Police. We advocate for the State of New Hampshire an adequate police force for the better protection of persons and property in our rural and recreational districts.

12. Fish and Game Department. To the further development and increased activity of the Fish and Game department we pledge our best efforts.

13. Recreational Activities. The scenic beauty of New Hampshire we realize is a valuable asset to the state and we believe that its natural charm should be developed to the utmost and that New Hampshire should be made the year-round vacation land of the east. We urge a vigorous and continuous campaign to make known to the residents of the other states in the Union the beauty and advantages of our state in all seasons of the year, pointing with pride to our declaration in this respect in the Democratic Platform of 1934 which, with the action taken in accordance with it, has resulted during the past recreational season in bringing here the largest number of tourists ever known in the history of the state, to the great benefit of the business men and farmers of the state.

14. Budget. We condemn the practice of shifting public money from one fund to another in order to create the impression of a balanced budget. We believe the state's bookkeeping system should

LOCAL OPTION

Section 35, Chapter 3 of the Laws of the Special Session of 1934, requires the following questions to be submitted to the voters in cities and towns on the usual ballot at each biennial election:

"Shall state stores be operated by permission of the State Liquor Commission in this city or town, under the provisions of 'An Act to regulate the traffic in intoxicating liquor,' passed at the 1934 special session of the general court?"

"Shall beverages be sold in this city or town under permits granted by the State Liquor Commission under the provisions of chapter 99 of the Laws of 1933, and amendments thereto?"

In the following tables, after the vote for Governor, may be found a tabulation of the vote as returned by the several towns and wards on the above questions:

RECOUNTS AFTER THE GENERAL ELECTION

In this chapter may be found a brief description of the eighteen recounts of ballots held by the secretary of state after the general election, November 3, 1936, together with reference to the services of the ballot law commission under authority of Chapter 43, Laws of 1935.

The first of two columns of figures shows the figures of the official returns to the secretary of state. These figures are followed by the figures of the recounts.

First Congressional District,

		Recount
Arthur B. Jenks, r	51920	— 51679*
Alphonse Roy, d	51370	— 51679*
Alice G. Flynn, ind	322	— 720
Anna C. Rudd, f-l	197	— 252

* Whereupon the Secretary of State declared a tie between Messrs. Jenks and Roy. Following this declaration, the parties concerned appealed to the Ballot Law Commission (Ch. 43, Laws of 1935) and after examination of certain disputed ballots Alphonse Roy was found to be elected, the totals apparently being:

Alphonse Roy, d	51695
Arthur B. Jenks, r	51678

In the meantime investigation had been instituted and evidence produced which influenced the Ballot Law Commission to withdraw their former opinion and decide that to determine "fairly" the basic issue, they must make an examination of all the ballots then in the custody of the Secretary of State, which were cast in the election of Nov. 3, 1936, in the First Congressional District.

After careful examination of all ballots and consideration of evidence, the final ruling of the Ballot Law Commission, dated December 28, 1936, was as follows:

Arthur B. Jenks, r	51649
Alphonse Roy, d	51639

and a certificate of election was issued to Mr. Jenks.
