

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

SUPREME COURT

In Case No. 2003-0401, The Blackthorne Group, Inc. v. Pines of Newmarket, Inc., the court on May 28, 2004, issued the following order:

The defendant's motion for revision of opinion is hereby granted. The slip opinion dated April 21, 2004 is modified as follows: The paragraph which begins on page 1 and ends on page 2 of the slip opinion is deleted and replaced by the following paragraph.

We assume the following facts to be true for the purposes of this appeal. See Minuteman, LLC v. Microsoft Corp., 147 N.H. 634, 636 (2002). The plaintiff is a company headquartered in New York, which assesses the value of going-concern assisted living facilities, and helps buyers to obtain financing. The plaintiff is a licensed real estate broker in New York, but is not so licensed in New Hampshire.

Broderick, Nadeau, Dalianis, Duggan and Galway, JJ., concurred.

Eileen Fox,

Clerk
